VOL. XVI, NO. 24.

THE BLAIRMORE ENTERPRISE THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1925.

$2.00 PER ANNUM

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Rev. H. L. Nobbs will hold service on Sunday, the 14th, at 11 a.m.

Cranbrook teachers have asked for an increase in salaries, ranging from $50 to $200 per year, and it is thought their request will be granted in view of the number of recent resignations because of better salaries being offered elsewhere.

BLAIRMORE GOLF CLUB

The annual competition for the Green Cup (handicap) was held on the 3rd instant, with the following results:

First—W. Goddard, 57-18-69.
Other scores—M. G. Rhynas, 82-12-70. Gordon Steeves, 90-20-70.

A new lodge of Elks was formed at Granum on Monday night.

DEATH OF HARRY J. BENSON

The death of Harry Jules Benson, well-known drayman, occurred on Friday morning last, as a result of a kick received from a horse on Wednesday afternoon.

Harry was but 36 years of age and well and popularly known throughout the district. He leaves a young wife and two small children to mourn him. Funeral took place on Sunday, arrangements being in the hands of the L.O.O.F. Large numbers of members of Blairmore Lodge No. 68, L.O.O.F., and of Crowview Rebekah Lodge and the Blairmore Lodge of Elks were in attendance. At the Union church a very impressive service was conducted by Rev. W. T. Young. The remains were laid to rest in the General Protestant cemetery. At the graveside the beautiful last rites of the above societies were administered.

Floral tributes were many and included: Wreath—Wife and Family; Mrs. Winstanley and Family, Michel, Ernest, Bob, Bertha and Hilda, Michel; Blairmore Lodge No. 68, L.O.O.F.; Blairmore Lodge, B.P.O.E.; Crowview Rebekah Lodge; G.W.F.A., Blairmore; Mr. and Mrs. H. Nissen, Mr. Gordan, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moore and Miss Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. T. Murphy, Sprays—F. S. Kafoury and Family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Morency, Mr. and Mrs. McVey, T. Smith and Family, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson (Coleman), William and David Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. McFegan, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Griesbach, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grundy (Michel), Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harner.

Through the columns of The Enterprise, Mrs. Benson desires to thank all friends for kindnesses and tokens of sympathy in the hour of her bereavement.

GIVES LECTURE ON WEMBLEY EXHIBITION

Last evening, through the generosity of the local Lodge of Elks, the local Boy Scouts gave an interesting evening to a good audience in the Elks' hall.

The programme opened with the singing of "O Canada," with the Boy Scouts in official dress, standing at attention. Then a realistic camp-fire scene with an original song and chorus by the troop.

The Rev. H. Lawrence Nobbs followed with a lecture, illustrated with pictures, on "The Wembley Exhibition."

Community songs intervened the proceedings.

The money raised is to be given to the Scout and Guide movements in the town.

OLD BOYS TO MEET TONIGHT

A meeting of the Dads and Lads will be held in the Union church tonight at 8 o'clock, to be addressed by Mr. Wallace Forgie, specialist in boys' orders and disorders, physical, mental, spiritual and otherwise.

Mr. Forgie has made a study of the boys problem and will have a fine message to deliver before leaving the province for other fields of labor.

The meeting is simply a gathering of men and boys and is not a church service, to come along and show your interest in the Boys of Blairmore.

Some folks are wondering why a certain secretary-treasurer wears wadding in his ears. Well, that's easy. He, with others, looks forward to the ringing of wedding bells in the course of a few months, and according to rumors they will ring, and loudly, too, and a well-known departmental official is not altogether ignorant of the fact.

TRAGIC DEATH OF ANDREW BOWER

WATERTON LAKES PARK, June 3.—The sad death of Andrew Bower, Park Ranger here, on Saturday afternoon last, has cast a gloom over the entire community of Waterton Lakes Park. The late Mr. Bower was one of the most popular and efficient Park officials here and a host of friends at Waterton, Pincher Creek, Blairmore, Beaver Mines, Mountain View, Cardston and other points where he is known, mourn his loss. He was a veteran of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, a veteran of the World War, and has since his discharge in 1916, been on the Parks and Forest Ranger service, he being the oldest ranger on the Park at the time of his death. Previous to being stationed at Belly River in Waterton Lakes Park, he was stationed at Kelly's Camp, in the Crow's Nest Forest Reserve, west of Beaver Mines. The sympathy of everyone is extended to the widow and the five small children in their great loss.

The actual facts of the accident will never be known as Mr. Bower never regained consciousness from the time of the happening some time on Wednesday until his death at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Cardston hospital, but from what can be learned from the signs left around the spot where he was found late on Thursday evening, the horse he was riding evidently commenced bucking and threw him to the ground and it is believed that his head struck a stump near which he was found lying and fractured his skull. From the time of the accident to the time he was found was around 30 hours and all this time he was lying out exposed to the weather, which was during this time exceptionally bad, raining and snowing nearly all the time. The exposure therefore lessened his chances considerably and although everything possible was done for him, he succumbed to his injuries and the effects of this exposure without regaining consciousness. The accident occurred near the saw mill site on Stony Creek Ridge about half way from his station at Belly River and Headquarters.

The funeral took place at Pincher Creek yesterday afternoon, under Masonic auspices, large numbers of members of the Masonic fraternity and friends from The Pass and district attending.

DEATH OF WILLIAM ROBINSON

William Robinson, an aged and former resident of the Burmis district, died at Elko on Sunday last, following a prolonged illness.

Mr. Robinson was for years resident of the Burmis district, where he carried on farming and ranching successfully. A few years ago he disposed of his farming interests to the McEachern Ranching Company, and retired. For several years he has lived in the Elko district. He was a member of the Masonic order and members of that fraternity had the body shipped to Pincher Creek, where interment took place on Wednesday forenoon under Masonic auspices.

Deceased is survived by his aged widow.

Senator McCall died at Simcoe, Ontario, on Tuesday morning at the age of 85 years.

Misses McVey, Brunetto, Waiwell, Kroli and Pozzi have returned to their homes here, having completed their course in normal school.

Official declaration that the United Church of Canada had been constituted was made at Toronto yesterday by Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, Rev. Dr. G. C. Fidgeon and Rev. Dr. W. H. Wariner, representing respectively the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational bodies.

WORLD HAPPENINGS
BRIEFLY TOLD

Str. Edward Grigg, Liberal member of the British Parliament and former private secretary to Lloyd George, has been appointed governor of Kenya.

All the defendants in the trial growing out of the assassination last November of Sir Leo St. Louis, Sir of the Egyptian army, were found guilty of murder.

The Toronto Women's Liberal Association has passed its objective for the Laurier memorial scholarship fund. The association undertook to raise $4,000 and has collected $4,161.

Prince Charles of Belgium has resumed his duties as sub-lieutenant in the British navy after a leave of several months at home. He is now in his 32nd year.

The minister of war has issued orders for the immediate discharge of the additional troops which Bulgaria had recruited. This is due to the refusal of the ambassador's council to permit their further retention.

The Duke of Devonshire, who was governor-general of Canada from 1911 to 1921, celebrated his 57th birthday May 31. He has recovered from the illness which befell him in Ireland some time ago.

Finance Minister de Stefani has announced to the Chamber of Deputies, Rome, that the Italian firm of J. P. Morgan and Company had granted a credit of $50,000,000 to a consortium of Italian banks to be used to stabilize exchange.

Second and third readings were given in the house to a bill amending the Canada Evidence Act, permitting the crown to sue a person for perjury to use against the accused any evidence given by him in any other proceeding.

The British League conference has passed a resolution in favor of compelling employers to employ disabled ex-servicemen wherever possible, and in favor of preventing the displacement of ex-servicemen by female clerical assistance in government offices.

Italy's Prospects Are Bright

Country Is Prosperous and People Healthy and Happy

Italy is now one of the most prosperous of European countries. She has neither steel for war nor coal and iron industry, but she has a healthy, happy and fertile people.

Her population increased at the arithmetic by 2,000,000 from Austria-Hungary, is now equal to that of France. The birth rate is 31.2; the death rate is 12. Italy is increasing, therefore, at the rate of more than 400,000 a year.

France's figures are "a lot of stagnant waters"; Italy's are the rushing of a river in rocky mountains. If France's future in figures lies with adversity with apprehension, it is apprehension that Italy's prospects inspire in her. —Robert Smeaton in Atlantic Monthly.

Canadian Banking System

Very Superior to U.S. in Spite of Recent Failures

There were 45 bank failures and 1,533 commercial bankruptcies in the United States in April. Probably most of the banks were small local concerns, but the depositors and shareholders do not seem to have been that reassured. With the Home Bank crash in mind Canadians may not boast too loudly of the superiority of their banking system, but it has since been buttressed by a government audit system, and on the score of stability there is something to be said for institutions the size of the Canadian chartered banks. —Toronto Globe.

Was Noted Explorer

Dr. A. H. S. Johnson, Canadian Scientist, Is Dead

Dr. Alfred S. Johnson, native of Ontario, died, aged 64, noted in scientific research and exploration, died at Chicago recently. He was a member of the Royal Geographical Society, founder and for many years editor of "Current History." Dr. Johnson later achieved distinction as managing editor of "The Technological World." Besides many trips to the Arctic, Dr. Johnson was a member of the 1906 government expedition to Labrador and spent much time on the study of a mine from Hudson Bay to Alaska.

The superior stability of some banks in New York is testimony that the government is doing nothing to help them.

Less than 100,000 men in Great Britain than before the war. The population census from 1901 to 1926 was 10,000,000. Now it is 9,800,000.

Heligoland Has Been Disarmed

Equipment Cost Germany $25,000,000 and 24 Years Work

Inhabitants of this little wind-swept island which has been converted from the status of a fortress and submarine base to that of a peaceful shelter of fishermen, who follow entertainment of summer visitors as a side-line, have been wondering of late how the great change which has taken place here is going to affect their business. The outer entrance to the harbor has been completely blocked, as part of the scheme of demilitarization, and rendering of the island for all but fishing smacks and small pleasure boats bringing summer tourists from the continent.

The work of demilitarization, carried out under the peace terms by the international commission of control, is said to be the largest task of this kind ever attempted, and with the blockading of the harbor entrance against warships of all kinds the job has been brought to a conclusion. While this work was in progress great numbers of visitors arrived from spring until fall to witness the different phases of the work, but with the blasting away of the fortifications at an end, the great guns taken down and melted into peace-time implements, the inhabitants feel that the public generally will lose interest in this one-time island arsenal which the Germans took 21 years to equip at a cost of approximately $25,000,000.

Exclusive Patterns

Smart and Effective Model, Quickly Made

It may be made into an elaborate costume slip for the best dress or into a petticoat, trimmed in such a variety of ways. Front of this garment is cut in one piece, slashed in, and gathered at sides to give the necessary fullness; back is cut through at the waist with the gathered skirt attached. The small back view shows the garment with round neck, and shoulder straps, also the bottom scalloped and buttonhole-stitched. The front view gives another suggestion of the same model cut straight across below the arms in cascade style, straps of ribbon or lace attached and delicately finished with hemstitching and lace edging. Girls' semi-fitted princess pattern No. 1017 cut in sizes 6 to 14 years. Size 12 requires 2 yards material 36 inches wide.

British Firms Get Contract

Combined Resources to Complete With German Synthetic-Fibers

An important contract involving £100,000 has been captured from Germany by two British metal firms. The contract is for the supply of oil well casing to the Anglo-Persian Oil Co. A German syndicate quoted figures 20 per cent. below the British companies tendering separately, whereupon the Anglo-Persian Oil Co. conferred with the British firms, as a result of which the latter agreed to combine their resources. They were then able to compete with the figures of the German syndicate, and were awarded the contract.

'New Difficulty For Bargher

Safe Sargens When Touched By Unearthed Hand

Mr. R. C. Whittingham, a young inventor from West Richmond, has just brought out a new device which will add to the difficulties of the burglar. It is nothing less than a safe which is so constructed that it is impossible to open it without being detected. The device is a small box which is placed in the safe, and when it is touched by an unauthorized hand, it sets off a bell which rings loudly, thus alerting the owner.

Looks Were Deserving

"What's the law?" inquired the woman of the taxi-driver, as the conversationalist stepped at her destination.

"Two dollars, ma'am," was the prompt reply.

"Well, here's a dollar that's a half, my man. I'm not such a fool as I look."

"No," said the driver, "I wish you were, ma'am."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JUNE 14

THE CHURCH IN ANTIOCH

Golden Text: The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. Acts 11:26.

Lesson: Acts 11:19-30.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 12.

The Text Explained and Illumined

Good Text of Acts, verses 19-31.

Like new Jews backward in his narrative.

Recalling the trouble that arose after the stoning of Stephen, he tells us that it resulted in the disciples being scattered abroad.

"The persecution turns out to be a mission-ary society unconsciously organized by the force of the new faith." (Dr. Lym H. Hoag).

The persecuted dispersed in Phoenicia and the islands of Cyprus and Antioch in Syria, and everywhere they preached to the Jews and won new converts.

The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church.

Some of the disciples who went to Antioch were Greek-speaking Jews, natives of Cyprus and Cilicia, whose residence among Gentiles had made them more liberal than were the Hebrew-speaking Jews of Palestine.

These humble and unlearned disciples took a great forward step in the history of the Church—they preached to the Greeks at Antioch also, telling them about the Lord Jesus.

A Dangerous Shipment

New York Zoo Receives Assortment of Poisonous Snakes

The worst assortment of poisonous reptiles yet to arrive in this country has been taken safely from a Brooklyn dock through New York streets to the Bronx Zoo in trucks and with armed guards.

Arctic vipers, with equal, only heads as broad as a man's hand; four foot long, nine feet long, slender as whips, and as quick as lightning; cobra, thirty feet long, which spit venom; and eighteen green mambas, the deadliest and most vicious reptiles in the world, were included in the consignment.

They were caught in Africa by J. L. Buck, of Trenton, N.J.

At the zoo four keepers who transferred the snakes wore glasses to safeguard their eyes from the streams of poison the big reptiles ejected.

One of them had a narrow escape when a cobra shot its venom fifteen feet, missing the keeper by a foot.

Says Radio Causal

Loss Of Dingible

Professor in Tokyo University Investigated Disaster of SS3

Dr. T. Terada, science professor in Tokyo University, says that the destruction of the dirigible SS3 last March when it crashed in the sea was caused by a broadcast radio wave.

Dr. Terada was a member of the board appointed to investigate the explosion, and after it had ended its labors without finding a theory, he concluded his own research. Considering the airship with the aluminum paint that was used on the SS3, he found that radio waves directed against it produced sparks measuring nearly an inch, and while he has not fully explained the nature of the explosion and its results, he expresses his conviction that he has found the cause of the disaster.

Firms Increasing

Number Employed

Statistics Show Expansion Much Larger Than Recorded Last Year

Further and pronounced improvement in the employment situation, says the bureau of statistics, was indicated on May 7, when 5,323 firms reported that they had increased their working forces by 25,533 persons.

This expansion, which to a considerable extent represents seasonal activity, is on a much larger scale than that recorded on May 1, 1924. The latter number was 4,212 firms, an increase of 30.5 per cent. on the number reported on May 1, 1923.

Act Of Country Gave A Legacy

Old Lady Did Not Forget Kindness Of Conductor

Conductor 85 of the Capital Traction Company, Washington, D.C., known to his family and a few friends as James Gray, left his car several years ago and took to his bed.

He was not able to get up, and when he got off he helped her to the curb again. Recently he received a letter from Miss Anna Ward, of Cincinnati, saying that her mother, Mrs. Mary Ward, had died and left him $4,000 by will.

It was not until he was 85 that he learned that she never forgot him.

Dunkhonor Pupils

Again In Revolt

Insist On Being Allowed To Sing Russian Hymns

Dunkhonor children attending the Columbia school at Grand Forks, B.C., have refused to repeat the Lord's Prayer as requested each day by the teachers on the ground that the children should include only the three H's and the singing of Russian hymns.

A delegation of Dunkhonor mothers backed up the action of the children and invaded the school to press their claim for singing of the hymns, some of which, school officials said, were indecent.

The Dunkhonor recently refused to send their children to provincial school, but after the courts fined several parents, they promised to send all the children and fill the school to overflowing.

German Soldiers Tire Of Military Routine

Get Despondent Before Twelve-Year Enlistment Is Ended

There were 100 suicides in the German army a year during 1923 and 1924, and the authorities, investigating causes, lay the blame largely to the long period of enlistment, 12 years, prescribed by the Treaty of Versailles.

Soldiers get despondent at the end of four or five years, it is pointed out, when they are not made non-commissioned officers.

Naturally the number of such commissions is limited. Those who are not selected are ahead of them only eight more years of drudgery.

On the other hand, men who serve out the full 12 years are given preference in the allotment of civil service positions, which means that they are practically taken care of for life.

Saskatchewan Butter

During the first quarter of this year the output of creamery butter in the province of Saskatchewan amounted to 1,917,551 pounds, compared with 1,633,535 pounds for the corresponding period of 1924, an increase of 13.9 per cent., according to a report issued by the provincial dairy commissioner.

CAPTAIN BLOOD
RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1921, by Rafael Sabatini

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warner Kerning in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XXII.—(Continued)

Blood would have slipped out of Port Royal again that same night. But that haughty Bishop had passed the word, and the fact kept a sharp lookout. In the end, though it took a fortnight, Blood bubbled him. He sent me and most of the men out in a frigate that I thought for the voyage. His name—as he'd secretly told me—was to follow and see that. Whether they'd the game he played or not I can't tell; but here he is before me as I'd expected he would be."

Having delivered himself of his detection of fakery and falsehood, and thereby added one more to the list of plots of Peter Blood, he enquired where the Captain might be found. Being informed that he kept his ship, Wolverstone stepped into a boat and went aboard, to report himself, as he put it.

In the great cabin of the Arabella he found Peter Blood alone and very far gone in drink—a condition in which no man ever before remembered to have seen him. "As Wolverstone came in," the Captain raised bloodshot eyes to consider him. A moment they sharpened in his gaze as he brought his visitor into focus. Then he laughed, a loose, idiotic laugh that yet somehow was half a sneer.

"My God, Peter, what's this?"

"Hum," said Peter. "Hum, from Jamaica."

"I'm asking you what all this is?" he bawled.

"Hum," said Captain Blood, again, and smiled. "Jas. run, answer all your questions. Why do you say never mind? Watch gonerger wif me?"

"I've done it," said Wolverstone.

"Thank God, ye had the sense to hold your tongue till I came. Are ye sober enough to understand me?"

"Drunk or sober, I'll understand you."

"Then listen." And out came the tale that Wolverstone had told. The Captain nodded himself to grasp it.

"It'll do as well as that," said he, when Wolverstone had finished.

"Ye're mauling," Wolverstone growled. "We'll talk again tomorrow."

They did, but to little purpose, whether that day or on any other day thereafter, when the rains—which set in that night—chased. Soon the shrewd Wolverstone discovered that rum was not what ailed Blood. There was a canker eating at his heart, and the Old Wolf knew enough to make a shrewd guess of its nature. He cursed at all things that dangled political and, knowing his blood, waited for the sickness to pass.

But it did not pass. When Blood was not dining or drinking in the taverns of Tortuga, keeping company that in his secret days he had led off, he was shut up in his cabin about the Arabella, alone and uncommunicative. His friends at Government House, bewildered at this change in him, sought to reclaim him. Made-moelle d'Ogeron, particularly distressed, sent him almost daily invitations, so few of which he responded.

Sometimes Blood asked himself why he had come back to Tortuga at all. He was degenerating visibly, under the eyes of all. He allowed a black beard to grow on cheeks that had ever been so carefully shaven; and the long thick black hair, once so sedulously curled, hung now in a rank, untidy mane. Wolverstone, the only one who held the clue to this degeneration, ventured once to hear him frankly about it.

"A moment, M. de Cussy. I do not think M. le Baron has observed that I am not alone. Let me present to you, sir, my companions: Captain Hagthorpe, of the Elizabeth; Captain Wolverstone, of the Atropos and Captain Yerville, of the Lachesis."

The Baron stared hard and haughtily at Captain Blood. His manner implied plainly that he despised them and that he desired them at once to understand it. It had a curious effect upon Captain Blood. It awoke the devil in him, and it awoke, at the same time, his self-respect, which of late had been slumbering. A sudden shame of his disordered life and appearance made him perhaps the more defiant. He waved his captains to the chairs that stood about.

"Draw up to the table, ladies. We are keeping the baron waiting."

They obeyed him. Wolverstone with a grin that was full of understanding. Hagthorpe growled the stare of M. de Rivarol. He did the only thing remaining to mark a distinction between himself and them. He put on his hat.

"Ye're very wise now," said Blood amiably. "I feel the draught myself."

And he covered himself with his plumbed castor. "Shall we come to business?"

"Lord Peter! Is there never to be no end to this? The plant drew."

"Lord Peter! Is there never to be no end to this? The plant drew."

"With you spend your days moping and wallowing, cause a white-faced mummy in Port Royal I have none of yet." Blood and "Omda! If ye want the wench, why the plague does not ye go and fetch her?"

"If there's no other expedition I tempt you, why not Port Royal? There's enough plunder in the town to tempt the lads, and there's the wench for you. Shall I sound them out?"

Blood was on his feet, his eyes blazing, his livid face distorted. "Ye'll leave my cabin this minute, so ye will, or, by heaven, it's your corpse I'll be carried out of it. Ye many hound, if ye dare come to me with such proposals!"

But, at last, as his buccaners were growing desperate, something happened, brought about by the captain's friend, M. d'Ogeron. One sunny morning he came to see Blood. He came aboard the Arabella, accompanied by a chubby little gentleman, amiable of countenance, amiable and self-confident of manner.

"My captain," M. d'Ogeron delivered himself to Blood, "I am the Governor of French Hispaniola, who desires a word with you."

"You have a good face here under your command, my captain," said M. de Cussy. "Some eight hundred men. I understand they grow restive."

"I am speaking officially, my captain. There is war between France and Spain in Europe. It is the intention of France that this war shall be carried into the New World."

A fleet is coming out from France and the command of M. le Baron de Rivarol for that purpose. I have letters from him desiring me to equip a supplementary squadron and raise a body of not less than a thousand men to reforce him on his arrival. What I have come to propose to you, my captain, at the suggestion of our good friend, M. d'Ogeron, is in brief, that you enroll your ships and your force under M. de Rivarol's flag."

"You are offering to take us into the French service?" he asked. "On what terms, Monsieur?"

"With the rank of Capitaine de Vaisseau for yourself and suitable ranks for the officers serving under you. You will enjoy the pay of that rank, and you will be entitled, together with your men, to one-tenth share in all prizes taken."

"I will consult my officers," said Blood. They came and the matter was laid before them by M. de Cussy himself. Yerville, the young French filibuster, had the honor to point out to M. de Cussy that the share offered was too small. For one-fifth of the prizes, the officers would answer for their men; not for less. This M. de Cussy finally conceded, and the officers were drawn up and signed that very day. The buccaners were to be at Petit Goave by the end of January, when M. de Rivarol had announced that he might be expected.

CHAPTER XXIII.

M. de Rivarol

Captain Blood was in a disgruntled mood when he sailed from Tortuga, and still in that mood when he came to his moorings in the bay of Petit Goave. In that same mood he greeted M. le Baron de Rivarol when this nobleman with his fleet of five men-of-war at last dropped anchor alongside the buccanier ships.

Summoned to wait on him, Captain Blood repaired to the Castle of Petit Goave, where the interview was to take place. The harbor, at all, had been faced many of forty, very cold and distant of manner, measured Captain Blood with an eye of obvious disapproval.

Of Hagthorpe, Yerville and Wolverstone, who stood ranged behind their captain, he took no heed whatever. M. de Cussy offered Captain Blood a chair.

"A moment, M. de Cussy. I do not think M. le Baron has observed that I am not alone. Let me present to you, sir, my companions: Captain Hagthorpe, of the Elizabeth; Captain Wolverstone, of the Atropos and Captain Yerville, of the Lachesis."

Egypt's Governor Well Chosen

Sir George Lloyd Understands People and Has Perfect Knowledge of Arabic

No better man could have been selected to succeed Field Marshal Viscount Allenby as British high commissioner for Egypt and for the Sudan than the Right Hon. Sir George Lloyd, the former governor of Bombay. He has left an enduring memorial in India in the form of the great barrage over the Indus at Sukkur, which is known as the Lloyd Dam.

Among Sir George Lloyd's qualifications for the post of British high commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan, with headquarters at Cairo and salary and allowances amounting to $100,000 are his perfect mastery of Arabic and his knowledge of everything in connection with Islam, especially in relation to its political problems. It was because of his remarkable understanding of all and sundry that Lord Curzon appointed him early in the Great War to assist him in organizing the Intelligence Service in the Near East.

Our Thoughtless Waste

Article in C.N.R. Magazine Could Be Applied to Any Business—

The Canadian National Railway Magazine, in an effort to assist the management of the road in its efforts to effect economies, with a view to impressing the users of paper clips gives the appended list of wastes:

"One hundred thousand paper clips are used for: Linotype cases, 7,100; bobbed hair holders, 10,800; pipe cleaners, 3,142; emergency marker clips, 802; car reamers, 5,534; lamp shades holders, 192; shirt sleeve adjusters, 4,182; Ford repair parts, 6,308; tooth picks, 9,021; bachelor buttons, 7,200; cuff links, 5,302; poker chips, 19,413; olive stabbers, 426; Eversham pencil repair kit, 7,234; toy tin lids, 14,152; holding papers together, 23. Total 100,000. This apt illustration of thoughtless waste is applicable to 1,000 other inexpensive articles besides paper clips, and to almost every business. Little economies effect big savings.—Drumford Exporter.

Air Pilots Amused

Experienced Men Had to Take Instructions from a Newcomer

Official pilots and mechanics at the Croydon air station had a good laugh at the expense of government red tape recently. All the air express pilots are members of the air force reserve, and as yet two were up for their annual training as recruits. To the amusement of their fellow pilots and officials, they were not allowed, owing to regulations, to take up an aeroplane by themselves.

They had to go through the usual instruction, sitting in pupil's seat while the instructor showed them how to fly the planes.

New York's Mystery Chinese

Ancient Oriental Has Not Left Shop For Thirty Years

There is an old Chinese in Pell Street, New York, who sits in his little shop window from noon until Chinatown's closing time. He seems careen—an expressionless Buddha with unsmiling eyes. He is said to be past 90.

In all the thirty years he has been down there he has never been known to leave his shop. He knows nothing of the New York about him. His world is encompassed in what he sees while perched upon his stool. He has a white wife who is seen now and then.

He takes no interest in disposing of the wares on his shelf, dried shark's fins, water lily roots, nuts, punk sticks and packages of tea. The story goes that he is a human devil chaser and that superstitious Chinese pay him fees to keep evil spirits away from them.

A writer says: I visited his shop while in the quarter to talk to him, but he would not talk, and was annoyed, and in his piping voice said: 'You no busy, go away.' No talker. I went over to see Hong Lee, the printer, who often talks of Chinatown characters. But he refused to discuss this ancient."

Canada's Literary Achievements

Had a Sturdy Native Literature to Her Credit

Interesting evidence that Canada is making progress not only along material lines, but in the world of letters, is found in the fact that a Canadian literary exhibit is one of the features of the Canadian Pavilion at the British Empire Exhibition now in its second year in London, England. The exhibit represents both French-Canadian and English-Canadian literature from the earliest dates down to the publications of 1921, and has been assembled by co-operation between the Canadian Government and the Canadian Authors' Association. Catalogues of Canadian books, both in English and French, have been prepared for distribution at the exhibition, and bear testimony to the fact that Canada has already a sturdy native literature to her credit.

The Short Skirt

President Coolidge's recent declaration that the "short skirt" hurt the textile industry led a lady to ask him, at a Washington reception, if he thought the short skirt imminent.

"No I wouldn't say that," he answered.

"What would you say, then, Mr. President?" the lady persisted.

"I'd say," he replied, "that this skirt is all right, as far as it goes."

THE ONE SURE WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

Is Keeping the Blood Pure by Using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Impure blood is the cause of most of the troubles that afflict people. This is the cause of the weakness, the feeling of languor and faintness, the aches and pains, the headaches and breathlessness, that afflict women and make their daily life a torture.

To get new health and strength the blood must be enriched. What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do in cases of this kind is told by Mrs. Augusta Snow, Woodford Station, Alta., who says:—

"Living on the prairie, and knowing that there are thousands of women like myself ailing away from a doctor, I felt it to tell them what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me."

"My first baby was born I seemed to have little energy. I felt weary and run-down, and unable to even do the ordinary household duties. I felt I needed a tonic and as I had long seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised I decided to try them. I got a supply and carefully followed the directions and before very long the result was wonderful. Day by day I regained my former strength and energy. The pills seemed to give me a keen appetite and I gained in weight and soon was able not only to do my work about the house, but to help with many chores on the farm. For this reason I would advise women, particularly those on the prairie or the farm, to keep a supply of these pills always on hand. One trial will convince you of their worth. I have recommended them to many of my friends and never have they failed to produce good results."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Verdon, Montreal, Quebec.—'I am one of thousands who have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have great faith in it. I can safely say it has relieved my troubles and shall never be without a bottle of it in my home. Since my last baby was born I suffered from pains and backache and would feel so tired I could not do anything in my home. Since I have been taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, I feel so different. I recommend it to all my friends and hope it will cure other women who are suffering from the troubles I had.'—Mrs. TROUS, H. GARDNER, 621 Evelyn Street, Verdun, Montreal, Quebec."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for the new mother. It is prepared from roots and herbs, contains no harmful drugs and can be taken by the nursing mother.

Its worth in restoring the mother to normal health and strength is told again and again in just such letters as Mrs. Gardner writes.

A testimonial of women users of the Vegetable Compound shows that 1 out of every 100 women taking the medicine are benefited by it. They write and tell us so. So evidence is plentiful to call it a dependable medicine for women. It is for sale by druggists everywhere.</

ASK INDIVIDUAL CON. FERENCE WITH TEACHERS

At a special meeting of the School Board held on Tuesday night, the reply from the teaching staff to the Board's ultimatum was given consideration.

The letter in question reads as follows:

"Blairmore, June 4th, 1925.
J. R. Gresham, Esq.,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Blairmore S.D. 628.

Dear Sir:

Individually we have received notices of the intention of your Board to abandon the salary schedule. While we sign separate agreements, we are wholly in the hands of our executives when it comes to accepting or not accepting alterations in a salary schedule.

Arrangements to meet with our executive can be made with Mr. Conway, president of the Crows' Nest Pass Local of the Alberta Teachers' Alliance.

Yours truly,

C. Marquis, D. M. J. Conway,
M. E. Rae, E. M. Fulton, H. T. Thoreson, V. J. Keith, J. Bond,
F. M. Gibeau, B. E. Douglas, F. Palmer, J. T. Nicol, J. Galloway.

The secretary was instructed to write each member of the staff to the following effect:

"Sir or Ma'am—We are sorry to have your expression of disinclination to discuss individually our letter to you under date of June 2nd, setting forth the salary terms of your continuance on the teaching staff of the Blairmore school. Permit us to remark that our relations as teacher and trustees have generally been mutually agreeable and we recognize no injustice or unfairness in the present instance.

"If it is your desire to continue on the staff of this school during the coming year on the terms as set forth in the above-mentioned letter, we would like to have your statement to that effect before June 26th, 1925, so as to be able to make provisions for the coming year. If you do not see fit to forward this statement, we will be regretfully forced to the conclusion that it is not your intention to continue on the staff of this school during the next year.

"We will be pleased to have your attendance at a special meeting to be held on Tuesday, June 16th, 1925, at 8 p.m., to become acquainted with our reasons for the proposed change.

(Sgd) L. DUTHIL, Chairman.
J. R. GRESHAM, Sec'y."

In view of the fact that no other district in this corner of Alberta has attempted to cut salaries at this time, further that the cost of living has been increased, rather than reduced, and still further that no formal demand for such cut has been made by the ratepayers, the members of the teaching staff will likely refuse to accept the cut in salaries as offered by the board.

The new scale offered by the board will cut the salaries approximately as follows: Principal Conway $400, Miss Fulton $200, Mr. Thoreson $250, Miss Gibeau $100, Miss Williams $100, Miss Keith $200, Miss Marquis $200, Miss Nicol $50, Miss Galloway $100, Miss Palmer $100, Mr. Bond nil, Miss Douglas $200, Miss Rae $100.

While the school board are considering monetary economy for the coming year, they are evidently overlooking the fact that an all-round change in the personnel of the teaching staff would be the most expensive undertaking possible, particularly to the pupils.

LABOR CONDITIONS IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Mr. Editor:

Having been back in England for the last five years and made it my business to study labor conditions from many standpoints, I here give you a few of my impressions deduced from facts that have come under my own personal experience.

The unemployment question is a problem that is appalling what you try to solve it. The number of unemployed in the mining industry is increasing every month. Mines are closing down in every part of the United Kingdom, and those that are operating are supposed to be working at a loss. Men are not getting enough to keep body and soul together. In my own native country of North Wales, splendid miners, that I am personally acquainted with, are working for as low as six shillings a day and glad very often to get that. Now these are facts that I can vouch for.

Thousands are literally starving to death. Men of fifty years of age are worn out and sink into premature graves by the thousands. In the steel industry it is no better. I myself worked the whole of 1923 at Brymbo, North Wales, at the steel works operated by Balfour, Beckett, and Co., Ltd., of which the premier of England is the chief director. My wages as a laborer amounted to £1-18-10 for 47 hours, after unemployment and health subscriptions had been deducted; and don't run away with the idea that there was no work in it. I, like other men, had to unload thirty tons per man of iron ore that clung to the bottom of the railway truck like concrete. I have with me a whole year's wage statements to confirm what I say, and anyone that doubts my word can inspect same. I am not passing any comments on who is to blame for this state of things, but quite frankly, but this I do say, that if our boasted civilization can do no better than this, it is getting high time that the same, soulful and merciful men of the present age come down to realities and see that things cannot be altered. If we say it is no use, it was always so and will remain so, well our so-called civilization is digging its own grave; and I am sure it can be altered. Bring into our economic system the principles of the Sermon on the Mount and the spirit of Him who uttered the words and things would be altered. Ah, but I hear someone say it has been tried before and proved a failure. I make bold to say I challenge anyone to show me where it has been tried in its entirety and failed. The root of the matter lies here: Everyone of us wants the other man to live up to it, but when it comes to ourselves we shirk it. It is as true now as when the carpenter of Nazareth exclaimed in that soul-stirring message of his that has rung down through the ages and will ring down the countless ages to come "Except a man is born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." Self is so predominant in the hearts of men that unless he becomes a new creature it will ever be so—self first.

Now I trust that many of my colleagues in the Crows' Nest Pass will not infer from my words written here that I have become sentimental and opinionated. I have had to come to these definite conclusions through hard experience. If we put our trust in material things alone we have not proved what life really is and was meant to be. We are spiritual beings and I can personally say with the greatest of present-day scientists, Sir Oliver Lodge, that the unseen things are more real to me than the seen. We grasp at fame and wealth and miss the substance, the shadow is all that is left. Let us all then, employees and workers in this glorious country of Canada, have a greater desire to do unto our neighbor as we would be should do unto us, have less of these wild-cat schemes to become rich at the expense of our brother man and build up our economic system on the solid rock of justice and love and all will be well.

Yours sincerely,
ROBERT EVANS,

PRIZES AWARDED FOR ESSAYS

Pincher Creek, Alta., June 5, 1925
Editor Enterprise:

Dear Sir—In attaching a copy of the essay written by Agnes Olechowicz, entitled "Should Forests be Green or Black?" This composition won first place in the recent Crows' Nest Forest Essay Contest for public school children.

First prize as above, and second, going to Elizabeth Chaput, were secured by scholars of Pincher Station school. Miss May Harvey, of Bellevue, took third, while essays from Coleman, Hillcrest, Brocket, Pincher Creek and Foremost were well up in the judging.

Prizes for this contest, sponsored by the Dominion Forestry Branch in the interests of Forest Fire Prevention, were distributed in very appropriate and spectacular style. One of the High River Forest Patrol airplanes, coming in from its morning flight over the forest reserve, was piloted down the Crows' Nest Pass above the Bellevue school just at noon. The third prize, an ivory miniature set, was dropped into the school yard addressed to Miss Harvey, the successful entrant. At Pincher Station school a few minutes later the same speedy machine dashed into view, once again showing parcels as it passed by. While the pilot made a wide circle to watch Agnes Olechowicz and Elizabeth Chaput were picking up the first and second prizes addressed to them, ivory miniature sets also. After crossing the school yard again, the pilot flew on to Pincher Creek and a few moments later had landed for lunch, before resuming his afternoon patrol.

First prize in this contest was presented by Mr. Harry Burns, of the McLaren Lumber Company, of Blairmore, while second prize was donated by T. H. Hinton, of the lumber firm of that name in Pincher Creek. Both these prominent lumber men expressed their desire to assist the spread of Forest Protection knowledge wherever possible. In common with forest authorities generally they hold that educated public opinion alone will stop the ravages of fires caused by human carelessness. Education begun at an early school age will tend towards this essential condition of a fully enlightened and awakened public, alive to the need for Forest Fire Prevention.

The judges, Mrs. W. A. Fraser, reader and elocutionist, and Mr. John Stevenson, English specialist and Principal of Pincher Creek High School, state that the essays were of very good quality throughout.

The marked interest in Forest Protection shown by all entrants is beyond question, a very gratifying feature from the viewpoint of the Forestry Branch and of conservationists generally.

The officers of the Crows' Nest Reserve wish to thank the judging committee, the donors of prizes, and the teachers and scholars of the district for their sincere co-operation in this campaign. Canada's resources must be protected and the belief is growing that the enlightened younger generation will not tolerate an annual fire loss of $15,000,000, which is now being levied on us because of carelessness with fire in the woods.

Your obedient servant,
J. L. VAN CAMP,
for Forest Supervisor.

Following is the prize-winning essay, written by Agnes Olechowicz, age 11 Grade VIII, Pincher Station, Alberta:

"Should Forests be Green or Black?"

Forests should not be destroyed by fire and left to stand blackened on the mountain sides, nor should fires be let go, to roar through the trees, leaving only the charred ghost-like trunks behind. Why should Canada's forest beauty, and one of her greatest sources of industry, be reduced to ashes and destruction?

There would be no camping in the forests if they were burned. When the tourists go riding through the forests they like nothing better than to stop beside a brook or river like with spruce, poplar and other trees. Nothing is so pleasant when camping as to have a tent shaded and surrounded by lovely green trees.

Next we must consider what a beautiful forest is to animals, and how much they appreciate them for their homes. The deer, rabbits and many other animals live in the forests. Deer and moose eat the bark and leaves of trees, while squirrels live on seeds they find in the cones.

Fur-bearing animals also live in forests. If these animals were burned (and in a forest-fire there is not much hope of their escape) there would be fewer creatures from which the fur could be procured. Fur would therefore be much more expensive and the financial circumstances of the average person would not permit him to buy the necessary fur-clothing for the winter season. Most birds love the forests and live in them. The partridge depends on the forests for its home and food, eating seeds, buds and berries from the trees. The woodpecker has its home in the trunks of trees; what would it do for food and shelter if the trees were all burned?

There would be an enormous loss if all the large trees were destroyed, such as the white pine, spruce, cedar, jack pine, hemlock and larch, which the whole world demands so much for building purposes. Sawmills could not work without timber and logs to plane and prepare into lumber. People need lumber to build their homes. They might use stone, but just imagine how much more work, and how much more expensive the building of the house would be. Even then the furniture would have to be made of wood.

Timber of lesser value and quality is used in pulp factories for making paper nowadays. Hence if forests are destroyed there comes a scarcity of paper. If it is made from more expensive materials through lack of wood it will be more costly.

Another great benefit of forests is their relation to soil and grass. Leaves and grass fall to decay, thus making rich humus soil from which the grass grows thicker and of a better quality. Hence forests are, in an indirect way, the means of supplying food for wild animals that feed on grass.

In speaking of the yearly decay of forests, each year's addition of humus and decayed substance makes the layer of soil deeper. Then the sun's rays cause a chemical reaction to take place in this humus substance. Later on the lower beds are compressed and stratified until the humus is so changed from its former state that it is known as coal. Hence forests are one of the main factors by which coal is developed and formed in the earth. How could people get along without coal? It is used for fires, cooking purposes, blacksmithing, steam engines, trains and factories. What would people do for warmth if all the forests were destroyed, leaving neither wood nor coal in the days to come?

Forest fires destroy not only the forests but do harm to every living thing for miles around. The smoke prevents the sunlight from reaching the ground, because it is so dense and black. It is very unhealthy, and prevents the growth of plants and trees. Sometimes growth is prevented for years. What animals do save themselves have to go far away, perhaps to another country, and so are lost to us also.

While fighting fires it takes many men, engines, hose and all the tools that fire may be fought with. It takes a great amount of money to pay the men who fight against the fires, as well as to make the machines and to pump the water from lakes and rivers to the fire.

Canada is one of the greatest forest-growing countries in the world. More than one-third of Canada is good for nothing else than tree-growing. Many countries require the soft and hard wood which Canada produces. Be careful therefore not to destroy one of our greatest resources. Keep the growing trees green—do not let them be blackened and ruined by fire. Prevent Forest Fires.

How can we do this? There are several ways. When you have been camping, even for one meal, do not go away before seeing that every mark at the fire is out. Be careful of making a pipe or cigarette near any place where there are dead leaves. And when burning brush around the clearing make sure the fire can go no further than what you are going to burn.

We ask every Canadian citizen—man, woman and child—to prevent the destruction of any part of Canada's great natural resources, her Forest Wealth.

A whistle drive will be held in the Lodge Hall on Wednesday night next, June 17th, by the Pythian Sisters, commencing at 8 o'clock. Six good prizes and refreshments. Everybody welcome.

HILLCREST PYTHIANS

ENTERTAIN GRAND OFFICERS

On Tuesday night a splendid gathering took place in the Castle Hall, Knight of Pythias, at Hillcrest, the occasion being the visit of Grand Chancellor Bro. Winesmark, of Calgary; Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, Bro. Wainwright, of Calgary, and Grand Warden Bro. J. Woods, of Coleman.

The hall was packed, a large number of visiting brothers being present from Blairmore and Coleman. After the special session, at which addresses were delivered by Chancellor Commanier Bro. Wainwright; Vice-Chancellor Bro. J. Atkinson; Past C. C. Bro. H. McDonald, Past C. G. Bro. Ed. Royle and Bros. Garrison and Carlson, the sisters descended with a splendid supper, after which dancing commenced and was kept up till the wee hours of the morn to music supplied by Sister Tomka and Bro. Royle. Bros. Winesmark and Wainwright left on the night train for Calgary.

NEED FOR TEACHERS'

ORGANIZATION

John H. Walker, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, in addressing a gathering recently, stated: "I think I may safely say that it is obvious that the teachers in our educational systems need to be organized for their own best interests in order that they may be paid salaries in measure commensurate with the years of preparation for their work and sufficient to enable them to live according to proper standards; to properly raise and educate their families; to have reasonable enjoyment in life and to be able to lay away a sufficient amount of money to take care of themselves during times of illness or in their declining years. Such organization is also necessary in order that they may be able to maintain their rights as men and women from unfair and humiliating treatment often imposed upon them by political and other influences that from time to time may have control over the position they occupy."

Rev. H. L. Nobbs has kindly offered to entertain Vets and their friends to an illustrated lecture on the Wensley Exhibition at the G.W. V.A. clubroom on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock. All Vets and their friends are cordially invited to be present. No admission fee.

Give Thornton A Chance

Canada's Parliament has been in session at Ottawa for many months but the "man in the street" would be in a real quandary if he was asked to state just what has been accomplished in a concrete way and of a constructive character for the upbuilding of the Dominion through the development of its resources and the promotion of its basic industries leading to national prosperity.

There has been oceans of talk. Weary weeks were spent thrashing over old straw in the debate on the Speech from the Throne, and still more weary weeks in unproductive talking during the debate on the Budget. Millions of dollars have been voted for various services. But, after all, what has really been accomplished?

Apart from these things, much time has been devoted to discussion of the Canadian National Railway and its management. Admittedly this is a subject deserving of close attention and it is right and proper that Parliament should do everything in its power to help place the system on a sound footing and cooperate with the Government and railway management in strengthening its position and hastening the day when, instead of constituting a heavy drain on the finances of the country, the C.N.R. will be revenue-producing and a source of financial strength to Canada.

But the general trend of the discussions at Ottawa do not appear to have that end in view. Rather there has been petty and carping criticism of minor details which should find no expression on the floors of Parliament and which it should be beneath the dignity of that body to even notice.

One of the best acts standing to the credit of the present Government was the securing of the services of Sir Henry Thornton as president of the Canadian National Railway. He has thrown himself with abounding energy into the task of consolidating and making a really efficient system out of the separate railway units which were turned over to him. He has created a splendid esprit de corps among the large staff of employees, has built up the system in every respect, and today the C.N.R. is an effective and vigorous competitor of the C.P.R.

Yet Parliament demands the presence at Ottawa of a man of Sir Henry's standing and carrying such huge responsibilities to answer playmate criticisms regarding petty details of management which the Board of Directors of the C.P.R. would never think of expecting of President Beatty. The C.P.R. can spend a million or more in the construction of a hotel at Lake Louise in order to cater to and capture tourist traffic, and nobody objects but, on the contrary, applauds their enterprise. Likewise the C.P.R. is not criticized when it indulges in extensive advertising campaigns to get business. But Sir Henry Thornton and the C.N.R. are the targets of attack in Parliament because some money is expended to develop the attractions of the National Park at Jasper Park and because it, too, advertises extensively in order to develop and increase tourist traffic over C.N.R. lines. Even Sir Henry's private car and the room he occupies in a hotel are objects of attack.

Right at the outset when taking over the management of the Canadian National, Sir Henry Thornton voiced a warning against party politics being allowed to interfere in the management of the road, and he has repeated that warning on several occasions since, pointing out in the plainest language possible that the C.N.R. can be made a success and an asset rather than a liability to the Dominion, but only if strict business principles are allowed to prevail in its direction and management and party politics are wholly eliminated.

Sir Henry Thornton is a big man and an outstandingly successful railway executive. He so proved himself in the United States, again in England, and still later during the war in France. Canada was fortunate in obtaining his services at a time when other big railway men thought the C.N.R. would prove the grave of any man's reputation. If Sir Henry is capable of handling his job, he should be left to do it and should be given the freest possible hand in working out and carrying his policies into effect.

Those members at Ottawa who are engaged in this guerrilla warfare against the present management of the C.N.R. are the real obstacles to the success of public ownership in Canada. Their criticisms are not in any sense constructive, but wholly destructive. They should be smothered.

The hullo's variety of oat named Liberty, originated at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Canada, has been used for four years in experimental work carried on by the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Station. The average yield during the past two years was 24.14 bushels to the acre, standing in fourth position in the varieties tested over the province.

Compensation Is Suggested

Another Menace To Airmen

Experts Trying to Discover Protection Against Atmospheric Electricity

A new peril of the air is revealed in the testimony given in London at the Inquest on the death of Flight Sergeant Frank Lowry, who died while carrying out wireless tests in an aeroplane over Andover aerodrome. The flying officer in charge gave evidence that after they had been in the air for fifteen minutes he noticed a peculiar smell and saw smoke issuing from the rear of the cockpit. On investigation he found that Lowry had collapsed at the bottom of the cockpit. The only conclusion he was able to draw as to the cause of the smoke was that Lowry must have come in contact with an electric current in the air due to atmospheric causes, although never in his career had he heard of anyone being killed by atmospheric electricity, although apparatus was sometimes damaged. Experts are now carrying out exhaustive tests to discover if this sinister force has been responsible for any of the unexplained air crashes and how it is possible to protect pilots against it.

Canadian Fliers' Fine Record

Airmen in 1924 Made Up 3,340 Hours Without Fatality

Aviators in the Royal Canadian Air Force set a new record for safe flying last year by making up 3,340 hours of actual flying time without a fatal accident in carrying air mail, patrolling forests and fisheries, and performing other government services, said a report from the department of the interior.

More than 3,000 acres of forest in Alberta were covered twice a day by air patrols during the season of fire hazard, and in Manitoba 400,000 acres were under observation. The forces photographed 40,000 square miles of terrain for the topographical survey.

MY SIX LITTLE ONES USED BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. John A. Patterson, N.S., says: "There are six children in our home, and the only medicine they get is Baby's Own Tablets, and I have not known the Tablets to fail when a medicine was needed. No mother should be without the Tablets in the house." Like Mrs. Patterson thousands of other mothers are quick to praise Baby's Own Tablets for bringing health and comfort to their little ones. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels, thus banishing constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers, and making feeding easy. They are guaranteed to contain no opiates and are perfectly safe for the youngest child. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

No Unemployment in France

Not Healthy Sign When It Means Decrease in Population

There is no unemployment in France. That seems a miracle to England, with its mass of unemployment. But the scarcity of labor which leads to that condition is not a healthy sign. It is, on the contrary, another reminder of that greatest danger of all to France—the decrease in population. France is not producing young enough to do the work in factories and fields. Its birth rate is dropping so low that the figures are terrifying to patriotic Frenchmen. Sir Philip Gibbs in the World's War, New York.

When a man has gone to seed it is almost time to plant him.

Was First Woman Graduate of Alberta

Hamilton Girl Has Been Practising Law in Toronto

Miss Ethel Bertha Fagan, of Hamilton, Ont., has the honor of being the first woman to graduate from the University of Alberta.

Before going to Alberta to take her course, Miss Fagan was for ten years engaged in law work in Toronto. For two years of this time she was articled, and has a number of clients of her own. She found there were many women who preferred, for different reasons, to seek the advice of a woman in the matter of investment and she expects to work up this line of practice. However, Miss Fagan expects ultimately to go into social service work. This has been her goal for several years. Law training is said to be more helpful in this work.

Value Of Taxable Property

Analysis of the Per Capita Value in the Different Provinces

The total assessed value of taxable property in 1924 totaled $1,000,000,000 in Canada having a population of 5,000,000 and over in 1922 was $2,052,251,736, being a per capita value of $1,001. Analyzed by provinces the per capita value of taxable property in municipalities of 5,000 and over was as follows: Prince Edward Island, $525; Nova Scotia, $572; New Brunswick, $164; Quebec, $1,029; Ontario, $380; Manitoba, $1,170; Saskatchewan, $1,022; Alberta, $1,009; and British Columbia, $1,297.

Heavy Seal Catch

Greater Than in Any Year Since Pelagic Treaty in 1911

"Up to the present time the Indians have made greater catches of fur seals on the west coast of Vancouver Island than in any year since sealing was closed to the white man by the Pelagic treaty in 1911," stated James Sloan, fur dealer, who has returned from a trip among the Indians of the west coast. He purchased 2,500 skins, costing roughly $50,000. Most of the skins are now in Victoria, awaiting the inspection of the customs before being shipped via the Panama Canal to C. M. Lamson, London, for the October sale.

Proposed Pulp Mill

May Erect a Hundred-ton Mill On Lake Winnipeg

Premier John Bracken announced that the Manitoba Government had decided to approve the proposals made by the Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the Interior, involving the immediate establishment of a hundred-ton pulp mill on Lake Winnipeg. Premier Bracken proposed certain modifications of the proposal which he sent by letter to Mr. Stewart.

The modifications would confine the selections of the pulpwood to the east side of Lake Winnipeg and limit these areas to the amount adequate to maintain a hundred-ton mill.

The proposal which the Bracken Government has had under consideration was that the J. D. McArthur interests be allowed to give up both "IA" comprising 1,080 square miles on the east side of Lake Winnipeg and select an equivalent area elsewhere in the province.

It was represented that if this concession could be made, Mr. McArthur had a binding arrangement with the Spanish River Paper Company that it would build within a year a paper mill in the province with a capacity of 100 tons.

A Ban On Verbosity

Recommend Forty-Minute Speeches Rule in House of Commons

Forty-minute speeches will be the general rule applying to House of Commons debates if the recommendations of the special committee, which has been considering the revision of the rules of the house are adopted. "No member except the prime minister, the leader of the opposition, or a minister moving a government order and the member speaking immediately after such minister, or a member making a motion of 'no confidence' in the government, and a minister replying thereto, shall speak for more than forty minutes at a time in any debate." In recommending that the membership of each standing committee of the house be reduced, the committee advocates that the membership of any standing committee consist of not more than thirty members, and that the committee consist of not more than thirty.

TROUBLE BREWS OVER STRIKE AT N.S. STEEL MINES

Glouce Bay, N.B.—Three office employees of the British Empire Steel Corporation were injured when officials who had been doing maintenance work at the New Waterford power station were forcibly removed from their stations by 200 striking miners.

As a result of consequent stoppage of work at the plant, the mines in Glouce Bay and New Waterford districts are now flooding, and the town of New Waterford lacks light and water.

J. E. McLaugh, vice president of the corporation, wired President Armstrong for police protection for officials working on maintenance shafts. An exchange of wires between District President McCleod, of the United Mines Workers, and W. J. O'Hearn, attorney-general of the province, brought a declaration from Mr. O'Hearn that if the mine workers resorted to violence his department would take action.

District President McCleod sent a telegram to Hon. James Murdoch, minister of labor, asking him to intervene and pointing out that "people living on 39 cents per week cannot forever be paid in the name of the action of the Government of Nova Scotia."

Pooling Cattle Would Not Influence Market

Unless Flow of Livestock Could Be Regulated—Considerable information has been given by stockmen and others to the Saskatchewan livestock pool commission, which is in Calgary obtaining on the co-operative marketing of cattle.

The commission is composed of George Langley, chairman, Edwin Evans, manager of the Moose Jaw stock yards, R. A. Wright, Drinkwater, Sask., and W. Waldron, of the Saskatchewan department of agriculture. Much of the information given to the commission was to the effect that if the market costs were reduced by a pool, it naturally would be to the advantage of the producer. However, the opinion was expressed that the mere fact of pooling cattle would not influence the general market price of livestock, but it was admitted that if it were possible to regulate the flow of the livestock to market, a pool have a beneficial effect.

Good Field For Canadian Trade

West Indies Offer Great Possibilities Says H. J. Logan
Hamilton, Ont.—The West Indies provide a great field for Canadian trade, H. J. Logan, K.C., M.P., told the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at luncheon. Mr. Logan described his recent trip there to investigate commercial possibilities. The business with the West Indies should be carried on, he said, if every other sea route were abandoned. Mr. Logan suggested changing the name of the Merchant Marine to the Canadian National Steamship Company.

Would Take Drastic Action

Advocates Deportation of Alien Criminals in Australia
Brisbane, Australia.—The need for the selection of immigrants, the deportation of every alien convicted of a crime, the advisability of keeping a record of all aliens in the Australian Commonwealth, and a more strict medical examination of newcomers, are suggestions made by T. A. Ferry, royal commissioner, who recently inspected into the social and economic effect of an increase in the number of aliens in North Queensland. He expressed the view that the existence of foreign clubs in Australia is undesirable.

Shanghai Armed Camp Under Martial Law

Shanghai.—Shanghai is an armed camp. Two outbreaks caused police to open fire, resulting in the death of two persons and the injury of many others. Banks were closed, store fronts were boarded up, food was being rationed out by shopkeepers, hotels and stores were searched for arms. While troops of several nations attempted to restore order after a series of uprisings started May 30.

Old Military Ceremonial Celebrated in London

"Trooping the Colors" on King's Birthday Reaffirms Allegiance
London.—King George celebrated his birthday birthday. The court came to London from Windsor for the occasion, which was marked by the customary congratulations from relatives, friends and foreign rulers and eulogistic articles in the newspapers.

The chief public celebration in London centered around the old military ceremonial, "Trooping the Colors," the annual parade and evolutions by the Brigade of Guards in St. James' Park.

The yearly military pageant of trooping the colors has no counterpart in any other army in the world, and it really constitutes a reaffirmation by the Brigade of Guards of their allegiance to the sovereign and their privilege of standing guard in special places and on special occasions of particular ceremony.

At the trooping of the colors the mounted officers of the Grenadier Guards used the saddle presented by the great Duke of Wellington to the Guards and the Life Guards appeared with the kettle-drum given by William IV, and also with the bugle which sounded their charge in the battle of Waterloo.

The King's birthday honors list, made public follows the line of "nobility and respectability" which was definitely instituted a few years back.

Unemployment and Crime

Average Criminal of Today Belongs to the Younger Generation
Winnipeg.—Marked increase of crime among women and the younger generations of Winnipeg during the past year was indicated in the annual report of Chief Constable Newton. The average criminal of today, the report states, is the boy of 17 to 18, at most 20 to 21 years of age. These youthful malefactors, the report declares, are "hardened criminals at heart," although just boys in years, boasting to their friends and parading themselves in an effort to show how close they can stick to their criminal associates.

Unemployment is blamed for much of the crime.

Credit Given Italy Is Important Step

Will Help Payment of War Debt and Stabilize Exchange
New York.—Establishment by J. P. Morgan and company of $50,000,000 revolving credit for the stabilization of Italian exchange, which has been announced, was viewed in the financial district as a step of great importance, certain to strengthen Italy's position in refunding her war debt and likely to pave the way for an eventual revaluation of the lire on a new gold basis.

To Accept Wage Cut

Reported That Lethbridge Miners Will Return to Work
Lethbridge.—Lethbridge miners voted three to one to go back to work. The vote of the local camp was 284 to 99 to accept the wage cut, which is about six per cent. for contract men and about thirty per cent. for day wage men.

An independent local union has been formed, known as the United Mine Federation, breaking away from the United Mine Workers of America.

Flight Is Abandoned

Tokio.—The round-the-world flight of aviator, interrupted here last year, has been definitely abandoned owing to the fact that his aeroplane, damaged when he attempted to take off at Osaka on May 14, cannot be repaired. The upper wing was damaged beyond repair. The supply ships are being from Vancouver, B.C., are being ordered back.

World's Finest Wine

Washington.—The sweet wine ever made, so slender that it cannot be seen without a microscope, has been manufactured by a physicist in the department of agriculture.

Retains Premiership

Hon. C. A. Dunning, Premier of Saskatchewan, whose Government was endorsed by the electors in the recent elections.

Dunning Government Has Big Majority

Liberals Gain Sweeping Victory in Saskatchewan Provincial Elections
Regina.—The final result of the Saskatchewan provincial elections, given the Dunning Government fifty seats. The Opposition secured eleven seats, three going Conservative and five Progressive. Two deferred elections in the north may increase the Government representation to 52. All members of the Provincial Cabinet were retained with the exception of the attorney-general.

GOVERNMENT TO HAVE MINISTER AT WASHINGTON

Ottawa.—The Canadian Government hopes to make the appointment of a Canadian minister to Washington very shortly. Premier King announced in the House of Commons, before the vote of $60,000 for Canadian representation in the United States was passed by the commons.

The prime minister said that the government had not found it easy to secure the person it wanted to represent Canada and referred to the necessary expenses which went with such a post.

St. Henry Drayton, Conservative, South York, said it was an unnecessary duplication of the British ambassador's work at Washington, and asked if a like appointment for Paris was intended, or if not, why? The premier said the Paris office was satisfactory, but the late Sir James Bryce said Canada provided nine-tenths of the work of the British ambassador at Washington, including run-runnings, smuggling, waterways, and ever increasing trade.

T. A. Crear, Progressive, Marquette, criticized the government for not having made the Washington appointment long ago.

J. S. Woodsworth, Labor, Winnipeg Centre, supported the proposal for a minister at Washington. He believed, however, that $60,000 was too much for this purpose. The vote was then carried.

Defeat Amendment For Higher Tariff

Big Majority Against Revision Suggested by Hon. Meighop
Ottawa.—By a majority of 110 votes, the House of Commons defeated the amendment moved by Right Hon. Arthur Meighop, Opposition leader, calling for an immediate revision of the tariff on a definitely and consistently protective basis. The vote stood: For, 37; against, 147.

Conservatives present voted solidly in favor of the Meighop resolution. Liberals, Progressives, Independents and J. S. Woodsworth, the Labor member present, voted against.

Arrested For Stealing Own Car

Washington, D.C.—William W. Kendrick was arrested for stealing his own automobile. He reported to the police that his car was stolen from in front of his home. Later he found it but neglected to report. He drove down town and a policeman, noting the license tag, arrested him. He was released after establishing proof it was his car.

Take Photographs

Niagara Falls.—British Discarded United States coastguard vessels sailed off the Chippewa creek and took photographs of six boats alleged to be laden with whiskey for future reference.

BRITAIN KEEPING CLOSE WATCH ON AFGHANISTAN

London.—As a result of alleged Soviet attempts in 1918 and 1919 to penetrate India through the valuable northwestern frontier, the British Government has been especially watchful of Afghanistan affairs. It has also maintained a strong defence at the frontier port, since German attempts to enter India from Afghanistan and the northwest during the war.

The British Government has a treaty with the Emir of Afghanistan, in which the Emir promises, not to allow Soviet agitators to enter towns within certain distances from the Indian frontier.

It is pointed out in London that an Afghan rebellion, instigated by foreign influence, could readily become a religious war and that would menace the greater part of India's population.

British observers have reported there is little possibility of any direct attack being made by the rebels against the British forces, but it is considered likely that the Emir will have to abdicate unless he is able to gather his supporters immediately and inflict decisive defeat upon the rebels.

Failed To Cheer Former Crown Prince

Berlin Crowds Resented Preferential Treatment He Received
Berlin.—The former Crown Prince of Germany enjoyed a few minutes of his pre-war glory again when he appeared at Tempelhof field to witness the aeroplane competition in progress there.

American newspaper men, on approaching to interview the pilot were curiously informed that foreigners were not desired to investigate Germany's aeroplanes. The crowds, which came to the field encountered everywhere the outspoken words of signs that said "no foreigners."

The former Crown Prince's review had all the earmarks of one of his old-time official appearances except that the crowds failed to cheer him and seemed to resent the preferential treatment he received.

Better Livestock Train

Now Making a Tour of the Province of Saskatchewan

Regina.—The "Better Livestock Train," operated under the direction of the Saskatchewan department of agriculture, will get out this week on a tour of the province in the interests of improved agriculture.

The train will be comprised of several carloads of pure-bred stock which will be used for demonstration purposes and which will be offered for sale. In addition to several lecture cars. Trade planting, fodder crops and marketing are some of the problems that will be explained and demonstrated in these lecture cars.

Alleged Red Plot In Balkans Bared

Movement Was to Spread to Other States

Berlin.—The Deutsche Zeitung claimed to be in possession of a document, intended to be confidential, according to M. Lewitzky, counselor of the Soviet legation at Vienna, is to take advantage of his diplomatic immunity and direct Communist activity throughout the Balkans. The Deutsche Zeitung said the plan was to "Bolshevize" Bulgaria first and then to spread the movement to other Balkan states.

To Deal With Rum Ships

Claim Most of Rum-Runners Fly the British Flag

Boston.—A call for reinforcement to deal with the growing rum run off Cape Ann and Boston harbor, augmented by vessels driven from New York waters by the coastguard blockade, has been sent to Washington by the coastguard. The line of the ships lying 22 miles off the coast has grown in recent days, first to eight and then to 12. Seven of the eight identified ships fly the British flag.

Act of Vandalism

Montreal.—The Montreal Star has offered a reward of $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person who destroyed 17 new trees in the "Barrage de Notre-Dame" in Notre Dame de Grace. The trees, which were planted shortly after the war, were cut through about three feet from the ground. They were in memory of Canada's fallen.

Will Attend Convention

Jas. MacDonald, Editor and Proprietor of the Courier, Unity, Sask., and President of the Saskatchewan Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association. Mr. MacDonald hopes to have recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to attend the Annual Convention to be held in Winnipeg on June 24, 25 and 26.

Large Crowd Greeted Prince At Durban

Durban, South Africa.—One of the most enthusiastic of the many rousing receptions the Prince of Wales has had during his tour of South Africa was given him here. On his way from Lady Smith, where he visited battlefields of the Boer War of 1899-1900, every way-side railroad station had cheering crowds. When he reached Durban, the streets were packed with people along the route he was to traverse. Formal welcoming ceremonies were conducted in the town hall square.

Canadian U.S. Trade Vital Factor To Both

Reciprocity May Become Burning Issue Says Washington Post

Washington.—In an editorial on Canadian trade, The Washington Post, which is close to the Coolidge administration, analyses figures given out recently by the Canadian minister of finance for the fiscal year ending March 31, and says trade between Canada and the United States is becoming larger and larger as "a vital factor to the prosperity of both."

It says reciprocity may yet become a more burning issue than was dreamed of in 1912 and intimates it would be a good thing for both countries. While the balance of trade is still in favor of the United States it predicts this will decrease as Canadian population and production increase.

The Post sees in the development of the Western Canadian provinces an available "safety valve" for domestic manufactures and industrial products of many kinds.

CLAIM FOR U.S. LAND DISCOVERED IN THE NORTH

Provincetown, Mass.—Commander Donald B. Macmillan, when informed by The Associated Press of the report that Hon. Charles Stewart, Canadian minister of the Interior, had told the House of Commons that Canada claims all lands north of the Dominion to the North Pole, said: "There is nothing new in this claim, although I have often wondered on what it was based."

"Any land which we discover on the expedition which is to start this month from Boston will certainly be claimed by us for the United States. We were told of Canada's claim when we left in 1915 on the Crocker Island expedition. We sailed for 160 miles across the Polar Sea and took from the maps and land had previously been shown on them, but we found none. "This summer's expedition will seek land in a region lying partly north of the Dominion, but the greater part will be north of Alaska. If we find anything we shall claim it for the United States, and I think that the nations of the world will regard it as just."

Keeps N.Y. Police Busy

New York.—Right policemen are on duty New York corner to stop jaw-walking, which, police say, is responsible for the majority of the traffic accidents there.

Arrow For Big Game

London.—Stewart White, an author, and Dr. T. Saxon Pope will attempt to hunt big game in British East Africa with bow and arrow.

SECURITY PACT SOLUTION NOW LOOMS IN SIGHT

Paris.—The French reply to British observations regarding the proposed French note to Germany, answering the latter's suggestions for a Western European security pact, has been sent to London.

It was said in official circles that the matter is considerably nearer a solution. The French have tried to meet some of the British objections and believe an agreement is in prospect. After a cabinet meeting, at which the note was discussed, Foreign Minister Briand said France and Great Britain were agreed in principle, but that a number of details remain to be settled. He expressed the belief that an agreement will be reached as soon as sent to Germany from after the meeting of the League of Nations, which commences at Geneva this week.

The previously expressed British attitude regarding Germany's security pact proposal, is that the pact should be confined to Western European frontiers. France has desired Eastern European frontiers to be taken into consideration.

Foreign Minister Briand plans to take the opportunity during his attendance at the League of Nations' council, in Geneva, to discuss with the British foreign secretary, Austen Chamberlain, the Allied reply to Germany's security pact proposal.

Daughters Of Empire

War Memorial Fund Has New Mounting

Ottawa.—The war memorial fund of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire has mounted to $282,800, according to the treasurer's report submitted at the organization's annual meeting here. Strong financial standing was indicated in the report made by Mrs. J. U. Power, of Toronto. The order's balance, which includes the large war memorial fund, stands at $403,742. The year's receipts totaled $75,612. The war memorial fund was increased by $53,294 in the year. Scholarships and bursaries from this fund cost $18,282. Total disbursements for the year were $10,195. Thirteen chapters were added during the year; the honorary secretary, Miss A. Stewart Galt, of Toronto, reported.

In Memory Of Statesman

Will Mark the Boyhood Home of Sir John A. MacDonald

Ottawa.—The council of Adolphus-William, Bay of Quinte, will erect a simple stone marker at the side of the boyhood home of Sir John A. MacDonald, Canada's first premier, and allow flowers about the spot, according to Allan Ross Davis, of Toronto, one of the prime movers in the event.

It is hoped that this first public recognition of that great statesman may prove the beginning of a national interest which may result in the erection of a lasting memorial," Mr. Davis stated.

Unemployment In Ireland

Free State Parliament Makes Heavy Grant For Relief

Dublin.—The Irish Free State Parliament has voted $65,000 for agricultural and unemployment relief work. The unemployment and agricultural situation is a result of prolonged rains and unfavorable crop prospects. Deputy Cohen, of the County Kildare, said that working people of his country were in a serious plight, and there would be deaths from hunger if the situation did not improve.

Proposed Wagon Road For Gold Area

Vancouver.—Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, and Dr. W. H. Sutherland, minister of public works, have left here for Stewart and the Portland Canal district, on a trip of inspection. It is possible a wagon road from the head of the Portland Canal right through to Dead Lake in the Cassiar district, which is the scene of a gold rush, may result from their visit.

King Ethelbert's Tomb

London.—While engaged in excavation work in connection with the restoration of Sherborne Abbey, workmen discovered the coffin of King Ethelbert, who died in 882 and was buried in the abbey in 886. The coffin was made of stone, and contained the bones of the king of the West Saxons.

Linked Up With British

London.—His Majesty the King has approved the alliance of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, with the First Royal Dragoons, and the Fifth British Columbia Light Horse, with the Fourth Queen's Own Hussars.

Local and General Items

The annual session of the I.O.O.F. of British Columbia is being held at Revelstoke this week.

Constable Pattle, of Drumheller, succeeds Constable Hobbirk with the local A.P.P. detachment.

A successful whist drive and dance was held in the Lodge Hall last evening by Crowview Rebekah Lodge.

Love is a queer thing, after all. It causes the young man to grow a moustache and the old man to shave it off.

Clubs are often detrimental to a man's welfare—especially those in the hands of policemen and expert poker players.

The shipment of several thousand head of buffalo from the Wainwright national park to the northland, where they will be set free, will commence shortly.

Remember the strawberry and ice cream festival to be held on Mr. Charbonnier's lawn on Wednesday afternoon next, under the auspices of the I.O.D.E.

The summer courses for teachers will be held at the University of Alberta this year from July 6 to August 8, and the attendance is expected to be fully up to former years.

Don't forget the I.O.O.F. social and dance in the Lodge Hall on Saturday night next. Dancing from 8.30 to 12. Everybody welcome. The proceeds of this dance will be devoted to a benevolent cause.

Rice, confetti, tin cans and other shrapnel in front of the premises of one of our young professionals this morning would indicate that some calamity not less than marriage had transpired very, very recently.

J. E. Gillis returned Sunday morning from a several weeks' visit to Ottawa. While in the capital, Mr. Gillis was successful in securing an additional $5000 grant towards river cribbing and dredging in Blainmore.

The many friends of Mr. Robert (Bob) Evans are glad to see him back with us, after quite a few years' absence in England. Mr. Evans has come to stay this time and is really glad to return to the good old Alberta soil.

Remember the grand dance to be given tomorrow night in the Union hall at Frank, under auspices of the Frank Red Cross. The Night Hawks' orchestra will furnish music. A good supper is promised at midnight. You are asked to help Frank do their part for the Red Cross.

The marriage of Miss Winnifred Dora, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Christophers, M.L.A., to Mr. William J. Hibbert, of Coleman, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hibbert have taken up residence in Coleman.

A pithead vote on the question of the formation of a Canadian Workers' Federation was taken at both the Coleman mines yesterday. The idea is to organize the whole of the bituminous coal mines into one body. The vote at Coleman and Bellevue was almost unanimous in favor of the new organization.

The following figures are quoted by Mayor Hardie, of Lethbridge: "The total of the budget presented to the British house of commons by Mr. Churchill is approximately $4,000,000. The average worth of gold in coinage is $17.00 per avoirdupois ounce, or $272 per pound, or $544,000 per ton of 2000 pounds. The average carrying capacity of a C.P.R. car is thirty tons, and $544,000 per ton x thirty tons equals $16,320,000 per car; and $4,000,000 divided by $16,320,000 equals 250 C.P.R. cars of gold coin to pay the British taxpayers' bill in 1925."

A vote of $34,000 for harbors and rivers in Saskatchewan and Alberta passed the Ottawa house on June 5th. Provision was made for dredging and cribbing at Blainmore, $5000; improvements in the Cowan Lake and river route, $2300, and the Port Resolution wharf, $7500.

The Financial Post remarks: "The supreme court has decided that bootleggers need not pay income tax; that the act does not apply to dishonest gains. Illegitimate ventures escape while legitimate undertakings pay. Another example of how business is bearing the burden of taxation."

At the recent session of the Pass Teachers' Alliance, election of officers resulted as follows: For president, D. M. J. Conway, of Blainmore; vice-president, C. V. Asselstine, of Bellevue; executive, Miss Hoyle, Coleman; Mr. Tonks, Hillcrest; Mr. McEachern, Bellevue; Miss Fulton, Blainmore; and Miss Sellen, Hillcrest.

A memorial tablet for the mounted police who located Fort Calgary in 1875 will be erected on a portion of the site of the Calgary city hall, according to arrangements made with the federal government in connection with Calgary's fiftieth anniversary and jubilee to be held this summer, commemorating the coming of the mounted police.

When you hear a man sneering at the local newspaper because it is not as big as the city daily you can safely bet that he does not spend any of his money in assisting to make it bigger and that generally the paper has done more for him than he has for it. The man who cannot see the benefit arising from the local paper is about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list.

Last week we made brief reference to the man Brown being sent up for trial on the charge of breaking or damaging property at the Cosmopolitan hotel. Brown appeared before Judge McDonald in the local district court on Monday and elected for speedy trial. There being absolutely no convicting evidence, Brown was dismissed. In this connection there is again evidence of gross injustice on the part of some party or parties. Why it is that an absolutely innocent person can be compelled to undergo unnecessary expense that he can ill afford in order to satisfy the so-called authorities that he is innocent, and at the same time be subjected to police guardianship, is beyond the imagination of any civilized being. In this case the man Brown had no means and to save himself from the jaws of our brand of British justice he was obliged to become indebted to some other party or parties.

The body of the man Thomas Ogelsky, missing from Coleman for several days, was discovered near a small shack on Tuesday, with a bottle of carbolic acid beside him. Death was evidently due to poison.

By a majority of fifty-one votes, the house of commons passed the third reading of a bill placing women in the four western provinces on an equality with men in so far as the grounds for divorce are concerned.

HAPPENED AT FRANK

They sat on the porch at midnight, Their lips were tightly pressed. The old man gave the signal And the bull dog did the rest.

STORM THAT SPOILS OUTING PLANS ACCEPTED HUMOROUSLY

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—Rain that started early in the morning and continued throughout the day resulted yesterday in the postponement of all of the outdoor shriner functions, came in for a merciless kidding on the part of thousands of visiting nobles.

Even the official Shrine parade, which it was announced earlier in the day, would be held last night even though it rained pitchforks, was called off.

Instead of a colorful procession of crack drill teams and bands, Broadway saw its first bathing beauty parade in the form of nobles, fat and thin, short and tall, who, having a flexible sense of humor, donned bathing suits and coursed the thoroughfare.

Red bathing caps replaced the fez, some pulled toy boats through the puddles of water, some towed wooden ducks; others fished from the curbs, and still others carried umbrellas bearing the legend "This is very unusual."
